The Company: A Leader in Innovation

Founded out of a need to create a better quality of life for people just like us...

1 The Company: A Leader in Innovation

By growing indoors and optimizing and automating control of the environment we are able to completely eliminate the need for pesticides. We grow in a sterile environment. The only way to grow “sterile” is to grow without soil and its inherent pathogens. Aeroponics is the key and our patent pending, automated closed environment grow system is unmatched in the industry.

Aeroponics is the process of growing plants suspended in air without soil or other grow media, and provides an environment for clean, efficient, and rapid plant production.

Our patent pending CryoSonic™ Extraction Process uses pure ethanol and sub-zero temperatures combined with Ultrasonic sound waves to extract all the compounds found in the plant.... exactly as they exist naturally in the plant. All 120+ known cannabinoids, flavonoids, amino acids, proteins, terpenes, etc. are extracted and maintained in their original form for maximum therapeutic effect.
